KILLED IN WRECK

Nephew of Miss Fannie I. Gordon Lost His Life Saturday

Mr. George Gordon, Civil Engineer on the L. and N. and son of Judge Thomas R. Gordon of Louisville, was killed by the wrecking of a work train near Knoxville Saturday morning.

Mr. Gordon, in company with Engineer Reiter, Fireman E. R. Walker and Brakeman W. H. Cornell, was riding in the cab of the engine.

Rounding a sharp curve, the engine overturned, the Engineer escaping with a broken hand, the three others being killed.

Judge Gordon went from Louisville in a special train and returned with the body of his son.

Deceased was the youngest son of Judge Gordon, 21 years of age, highly esteemed by all who knew him and had been recently employed by the L. and N. as Civil Engineer.

He was a nephew of Miss Fannie I. Gordon of this city, who left yesterday for Louisville to attend the funeral.

SUED THE CITY

Sixth Ward Citizen Wants Damages For Overflow of Sewer

The recent rains have brought the city another lawsuit.

This time Thomas Carrigan is the complainant.

He resides in property of M. C. Hutchinson, which is located near defendant's sewer in Chester street.

He charges in his petition that in order to drain said street and adjacent territory defendant has carelessly and negligently dug deep ditches East and West of said sewer, bringing thereto much more water than would naturally have flowed therein, and also that said sewer is not of sufficient size or capacity to carry off the water thus brought thereto; that by reason thereof the property which he occupies has been recently flooded and his household goods damaged in the sum of $250.

Messrs. A. B. and A. D. Cole are Attorneys for Carrigan.

The 750 electric poles in the city have received a coat of white paint.

Clarence Beckett and Henry Gill were tried before a Jury in the Police Court Saturday for abusing and mistreating a horse hired at R. H. Politt's livery stable. They were fined and costed $25 each. Gill reprieved his fine and Beckett went to Jail.

The stockholders and Directors of the Ort Cannel Coal Company of this city have leased their Johnson county coal lands to Morris Williams of Swathmore, Pa. The mines are to be worked on a royalty, and the Maysville investors are highly pleased over the outlook.

HAD TO BE SHOT

Fine Horse Was Killed As Result of a Runaway

Yesterday afternoon Colonel L. T. Anderson, accompanied by his sister Grace, were out driving on the Fleming pike.

At the intersection of the pike and the short road leading from Lexington street Dr. Davis was seen approaching in his automobile.

The horse being a spirited one, Colonel Anderson checked him up and waved his hand as a warning to stop.

Before the machine could be brought to a standstill, the horse frightened, and turning short around upset the buggy and spilled the occupants on the ground.

The frightened animal ran down the road and in its endeavor to jump a wire fence this side the L. and N. crossing on Lexington street, caught its left hind foot in the wire fence and broke it short off at the ankle.

The horse had to be shot.

The Colonel places its value at $500.

Miss Grace was bruised and scratched up, but fortunately aside from a big scare neither of the occupants were seriously injured.

The trap was wrecked.

A meeting of the Sunday-school Board of the Third Street M. E. Church was held Thursday evening, Rev. G. W. Bunton presiding.

A motion that a teachers' meeting be held Thursday after prayer-meeting each week, and that Mr. Richardson be appointed Instructor, was carried.

The plan of allowing the Sunday-school collection each Sunday to be given toward some Church benevolence, and the Church assuming the obligation of providing for the needs of the Sunday-school, was discussed, and it was decided to have the matter brought before the Official Board for action.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

B. B. WALSH, Secretary.

"COUSIN KATE."

The Ashland Independent of Saturday, October 7th, says: An ovation was tendered Miss Alberta Gallatin at the New Ashland Theater last night, where she appeared in the clever three act society comedy, "Cousin Kate." It was a veritable society event and the house was literally packed with the elite of Ashland and Catlettsburg and such an enthusiastic audience one seldom encounters. Miss Gallatin had admirable support. Her leading man, Wilfred Rogers, in the role of "Heath Desmond," the artist, was very fine and justly shared the honors with the star. Mr. Bloomer, as "Rev. James Bartlett," was a clever piece of work, and Master Thomas Kelly, as "Bobby Spencer," won the hearts of all, he being "the only man in the family." Miss Wells, as "Mrs. Spencer," and Miss McDonald, as "Amy Spencer," were very fine. The company plays Charleston today and Huntington Monday.

From the above it will be seen that "Cousin Kate" is a strictly high class attraction and one that there should be no hesitancy in attending. At The Washington tonight. Seats on sale at Ray's.

"When I say a square deal, I mean a square deal; exactly as much a square deal for the rich man as for the poor man; but no more. Let each stand on his merits, receive what is due him, and be judged according to his deserts. To more he is not entitled, and less he shall not have."—President Roosevelt.

OVER in Indiana a woman accepted $400 in full payment for her husband, who had been killed in a fight. She at first thought he was worth $2,000, but finally concluded that $400 was enough, as she could probably get another one.

CANDIDATES who have heretofore been accustomed to have the Editor "whoop it up" for them day after day and week after week, "free gratis and for glory," when asked to pay even less than commercial rates for newspaper space, are amazed at the work the Editor has so long been doing for nothing. It takes money to pay for type-setting, paper and ink—and a good bunch of it every Saturday afternoon.

COLONEL BENNETT H. YOUNG, one of the orators in behalf of the Gang in Louisville, says the Preachers of that city have overstepped the line of propriety. Just so. The Preachers are almost unanimous against the corruptionists, the red-light saloons and the murderers, and because they've had the independence to say so publicly they have, according to Mr. Young, "overstepped the bounds of their duty." If the Preachers only indorsed the Gang, they'd be the best fellows on earth.

THE bad are not in majority in any city; but it's a cinch that enough of the cowardly good are always ready to vote with the bad, thus giving control to the latter.

MARSHALL FIELD, Chicago's greatest merchant and taxpayer, says of municipal ownership—

"It's a fad like the silver question was and we will find that it will soon drop out of the public mind. I predict that within five years we in America will hear nothing more about it."

But, then, Mr. FIELD is simply a business man, and doesn't know half as much about it as the politicians.

In the hope that some reader of THE LEDGER will kindly explain to Br'er DULEY of The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, so that he can explain the explanation to his readers, this is reproduced from the last issue of his excellent paper—

"THE TOBACCO MOVEMENT."

"Quite a number of farmers were in Saturday to hear what ARCHIBALD STUART of Cincinnati, President of the Growers Association, had to say about the plans and prospects of the enterprise. Mr. STUART did not come, but Messrs. HANDY and BERRY of Harrison county were here in the interest of the movement. It turned out that subscriptions of stock previously made were made under a misapprehension, and as we were unavoidably absent that day we are unable to untangle the tangle into which the affair seems to have gotten. Our neighbor of The Gazette does not seem to be very clear in his explanation of the matter. What we do not understand is, whether the farmer must pay in 10% when he subscribes for the stock and then 15% when he delivers his tobacco, or whether he must pay in his 10% now and then take his pay for his tobacco 25% in stock and 75% in cash. It looks strange that there should have been a mixup on a plain, business proposition like that. We hope some one who knows just what is wanted will explain it to us. When they do we shall take pleasure in making it clear to our readers."

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest. You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures. August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.

MISTAKES.....

Are frequently far reaching, and universally so when one buys any article other than the very best in the way of supplies for the table. The country is full of stale, inferior and poisonous stuff, which is every day being palmed off on an unsuspecting public for good and wholesome foods. Because of this the straightforward, honorable and conscientious dealers throughout the country are united in an effort to induce Congress to pass a universal pure food law, which will prohibit the manufacture and sale of impure and poisonous foods, such as are now being sold by unscrupulous dealers, and consequently drive out of business all the "cheap john" concerns that deal only in such stuff.

I began business in Maysville over twenty-five years ago determined to only handle the best, act honorably with my customers and never misrepresent anything to make a sale. Whatever of success I have had with my I attribute to at all times standing by that determination. My experience of more than forty years in the business has qualified me to know the good from the bad when making my purchases, and has also satisfied me the true road to success is to deal fairly and honorably with the public, sell the best goods at fair prices and never practice deception to make a sale.

I am now getting in my larger purchases for the fall and winter trade and I do not hesitate to say that when all in and opened up I shall have the largest, cleanest, most varied stock of high grade goods ever offered in our city. My stock of Canned Goods and Fancy Groceries of all kinds will be immense, bought at the lowest prices, any jobber can buy them, very much lower than such goods can be bought at today, consequently I shall be prepared to meet any and all competition. My special brands of Red Canvas Hams and Breakfast Bacon and fine Leaf Lard are becoming more popular each day with those who only want the very best.

Perfection Flour is the leading flour and the sales are increasing rapidly because it has been proved to be the best and purest sold in this market; always reliable. I don't have to be continually changing to find something better. It is truly what the word implies—Perfection.

In the Blended Coffees I have the run, because I sell only the best at reasonable prices, always fresh, still going at 15c, 20c and 25c. I want every person to visit my store, and a special invitation is extended to country people when in our city to make my house their headquarters. You are always welcome, and it will be the old-fashioned Kentucky kind. I pay cash for Butter, Eggs, Poultry and Country Produce such as I need in my trade, but will only buy the very best. If I please you I want you to be sure and tell all your neighbors and friends. If anything wrong, come direct to me and don't mention it to any one else; I make everything right.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate Nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes:

"I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would bloat after eating and frequently become nauseated. I had an acrid discharge and pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Experience has proved this.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is free and confidential.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Quelling a Riot

Editor of Ledger: The Enquirer's Washington correspondent recently gave handsome and merited notice of the National Capital's "Bobbies," passing in review the famous organization with its many crucial tests under peculiar difficulties. Prominent mention is made of the sanguinary Know-Nothing riot in June, 1858, than which the Capital never witnessed occasion of its kind more trying and critical.

I was an enforced eye-witness to the tragic finale of that insane affair, and my recollection of it will remain distinct and vivid.

The Enquirer's account is something inaccurate, unavoidably so, without more detail than demanded in mere mention.

The contest was on for the Mayoralty of Washington. Dr. Magruder led the Democracy and "Dick" Wallach, son-in-law of Marshall Brown of Brown's Hotel, Pennsylvania avenue, championed the Know-Nothings. Things had long been at white heat, and as election day drew near stirring events were predicted and riot was in the air. Baltimore was headquarters of various Know-Nothing organizations—Plug Uglies, Dead Rabbits, Blood Tubs and others of like euphony.

Monday, June 1st, was election day. All Sunday previous these reckless creatures from Baltimore were pouring into Washington by every available means, till by night time the city was overrun by them and the vigilant Police were kept more than busy in efforts to suppress wide-spread disorder. With the opening of the polls two hundred additional Police, mounted, were on duty, and the entire force was taxed as never before to hold in check the full two thousand imported toughs, whose avowed purpose was control of the election, failing which to seize the ballot-boxes.

All went fairly well for the law-abiding till about 4 or 5 p. m. when it became known that the rioters would concentrate and dash for the ballot-box in Fifth Ward or Northern Liberties Market. With others, verdant as curious, I hied me to confines of classic "Swampoodle," whose odorous denizens gladly swelled the ranks of their Baltimore confreres and gave a helping hand. The first act was on as I reached the locality. The square was densely packed by a howling, yelling mass, which was being slowly beaten back to the curbstones by the struggling Police and finally held there, grim, threatening and only momentarily balked.

I was forced back with the rest and down a passage to the basement entrance of a corner residence about three or four feet below the street level—this finally proved my salvation. The Police now held the hollow square and for brief time everything was quiet, though there were four serried walls of threatening toughs, flaunting every conceivable bludgeon or weapon, uttering unearthly yells and casting random stones at the patient, enduring Police. It was the calm before the storm.

Ducking my head I was wholly concealed and safe from missile or present injury. But all my stock in that riot would have gone for a song, with slight regard for the singing. I was not scared, just only had a valiant desire not to feel so.

Hearing women's voices in affright and entreaty, I peered over the wall and looking diagonally across the empty square saw two ladies at an open second-story window. They were screaming and beckoning in my direction. In a moment a young man from near me, whom I recognized but hadn't before noticed, sprang into the open square and made rapidly in direction of the two. He had gotten about midway across when a pistol shot rang out and he instantly fell. This seemed a signal. Hundreds of discharges followed, and with a wild yell the mob to a man rushed into the square, bullets and stones flew thick as hail, the Police were attacked hand to hand, and a fight was on in bloody earnest.

It's fitting to add that the young man, whose name was Stirling, was a salesman in Hoover's

Shoe Store, Pennsylvania avenue. He was making for home and his frenzied mother, when, with the devil's own cruelty, he was shot down before her eyes. It is something to know that, losing a leg, he escaped with his life. I saw him frequently thereafter, an artificial limb being in evidence that "he had been there."

In anticipation of real trouble the Government had been petitioned for aid and the arrival at this juncture of a detachment of Marines with four pieces of artillery was most timely. They quickly swung into position and training their guns awaited orders of their commander, Major Lindley. A sudden quiet came at sight of the Marines, but the rioters still blocked the square and maintained a bold front. Major Lindley rode forward, coolly threw one leg over the horn of his saddle, drew his watch and shouted these words: "I will give you just five minutes to disperse."

They may have thought this buncombe; anyhow, they jeered and yelled, swayed to and fro, but made no signs of yielding. Time up, the officer drew aside, there was an audible click of his watch, and the command: "Fire" was followed by the belching of canister and roar of the four guns.

Many went down, killed and wounded; the mass of them went on a wild run for their lives. The entire night was spent by the Police in hunting them down, the following day showing over one thousand in prison or under guard.

Thus ended the Capital's greatest riot, in which the efficiency of its Police was demonstrated, and the persuasive power of small shot as well.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Maysville Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times

Nothing spoils a good disposition, Nothing taxes a man's patience, Like any itches of the skin. Itching Piles almost drive you crazy. All day it makes you miserable, All night it keeps you awake. Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief. Just the same with Eczema. Can hardly keep from scratching it. You would do so but you know it makes it worse.

Such miseries are daily decreasing. People are learning they can be cured. Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment. Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema, or any Itchiness of the skin. Read the testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Mrs. S. F. Tolle, of 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Before I used Doan's Ointment, in March, 1900, I had suffered for a long while with itching hemorrhoids. I had tried persistently to rid myself of the trouble but without success, and anybody who has known the tortures of this complaint will understand what I suffered. Doan's Ointment, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore cured me, as stated in a testimonial given at that time, and during the five years past I have had no return of the trouble. It required only one box to bring this gratifying result. I have used Doan's Ointment for other purposes, and find that it is a specific for skin troubles and all itching diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

A Lodge of Buffaloes has been organized at Ashland.

Saturday afternoon as Westbound No. 99 manifest freight was taking the siding at Broshears three cars were derailed. Traffic was not interrupted, however, as that part of the road is double tracked. The Covington wrecking crew soon had things in shape after their arrival.
